(B) Associate Teacher Comments:

Strengths	Areas of Improvement
Marisa will be greatly missed by staff and students alike. She has fit in wonderfully with our team here at William G. Davis Public School. Marisa is an extremely hard worker who gives everything to create and plan exciting and meaningful lessons. Her Daybook is very detailed and her lesson planning is very effective. She is confident teaching students and being in charge of lessons, but at the same time is very reflective and open to constructive criticism. She is professional in every aspect and a great role model for my students. Marisa is a team player and very competent. Me and my students and the rest of our Davis staff wish her all the best in her next placement.	Marisa has taken my advice of incorporating more technology into her lesson planning. She frequently would use our SmartBoard for interactive math and language activities. She also created QR Codes for students to scan onto their iPads. I encourage Marisa to continue learning about how to incorporate the use of iPads into her lesson planning. Marisa worked hard on her assessment strategies. We discussed many different ways to assess (for, to and of) learning. I encourage Marisa to continue to think about the different types of assessment and when it is appropriate to record student observations, performance tasks, rubrics, etc.
