

Defend this lesson! In a sentence or two, state why you should teach this lesson to students.

The reason this lesson is important because it is all about exploration so they can continue to create their clown for the end performance

