

As an exit ticket students will reflect how they felt their performance went; what was good or had improved since rehearsals? What could have been better? Etc.

Defend this lesson! This lesson allows the students to present the work that they had been working on. This allows them to their oral presentation component. It also exposes them to self- reflection and peer assessment. The how to's in a safe environment.

