Digital Redlining, Access, and Privacy

CREATED USING POWTOON

What is Digital Redlining?

Information that is limited to demographics based on a part of their identity through technology such as, socioeconomic conditio n, race, gender, education, and more

CREATED USING POWTOON

RED LINING

CREATED USING POWTOON

Digital Redlining and the Digital Divide

CREATED USING POWTOON

Consequence #1

Digital Redlining hinders students from moving forward academically

Consequence #2

Digital Redlining closes ones access to knowledge

Consequence #3

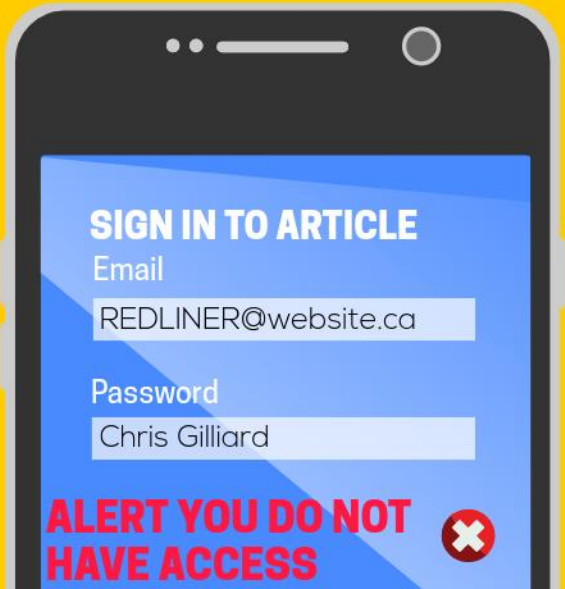
Digital Redlining limits the ability to build on prior knowledge

CREATED USING POWTOON

The Community College Demographics

The majority of students come from working class families

CREATED USING POWTOON

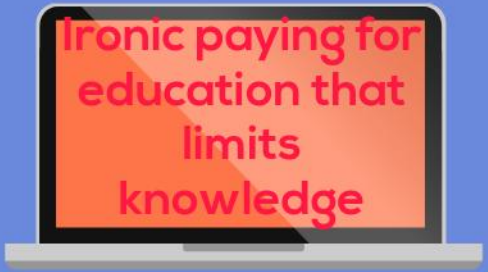


CREATED USING POWTOON

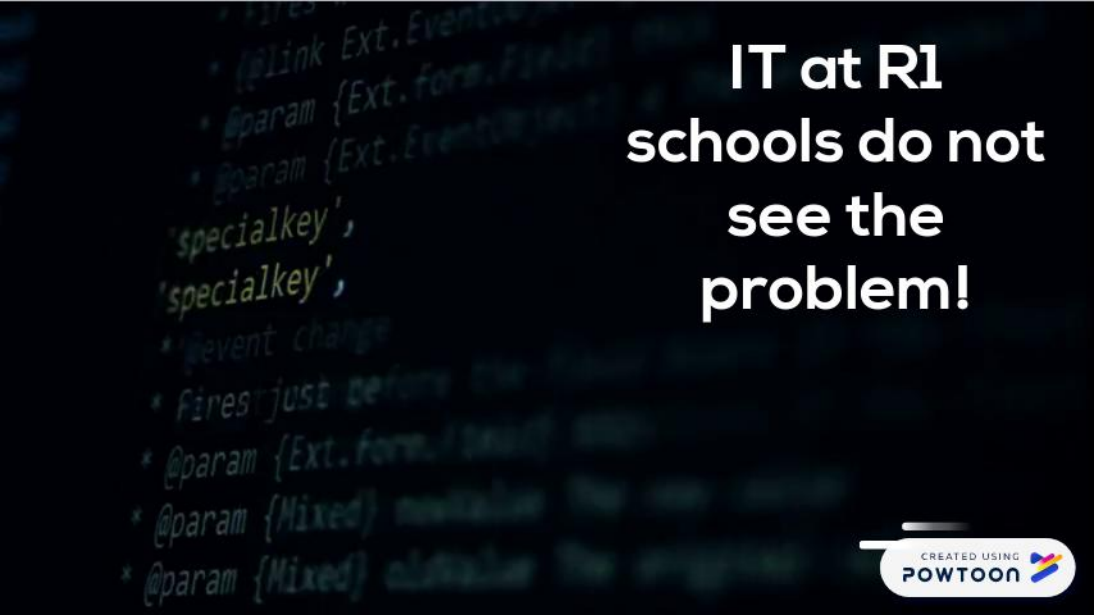
"These students face powerful forces—foundation grants, state funding, and federal programs—that configure education as job training and service to corporate needs"

CREATED USING POWTOON

Money +Misinformation= Digital Redlining



CREATED USING POWTOON



IT at R1 schools do not see the problem!
CREATED USING POWTOON

Found that the article confronts many mainstream issues such as social media censorship and the limitation of

CREATED USING POWTOON

Robert found Digital Redlining to be dangerous in secondary education settings because of future consequences
CREATED USING POWTOON

2018 QUESTIONS ON REDLINING

How Can educators combat redlining in the Classroom?
Should schools have consequences if deemed to be redlining its students?
Should community colleges be forced to acknowledge redlining?

CREATED USING POWTOON

CREATED USING POWTOON