Details

Summary of progress (Discuss concepts identified in the course, learning plan progress, skills)

Reem has demonstrated a high level of knowledge and skill set during this rotation in ED at the OC. She has applied herself to gain the most from this experience and maximizing her learnings of new experiences for growth. She has completed all her necessary hours required for this rotation. She maintained an open communication in her relationship with her preceptor, asking appropriate questions and reporting factual findings. She reported to shifts on time, dressed appropriate, great attitude and accomplished her learning plan goals. She worked on her rapport with her patients putting their needs first. She focused on good communication with her patients, charting appropriate and timely, with focused assessments. She worked alongside all members in a team approach. She is competent in his skill set, was able to administer medications safely and with knowledge using her patient identifiers. She was able to provide care using safe PPE protection for herself and patients. Her organization skills were well demonstrated in this very acute care setting. She was able to provide rationale for her plan of care for her day when asked. Reem is hard working, kind spirited and has a want to make this her profession of choice. She takes initiative to learn, works well with others and puts patients' needs forward. She has done well with ensuring she has met all aspects of 472

Strengths (Things you did well consistently):

Reem stayed focused, sought out feedback and used that feedback to grow she worked hard to meet all the competencies in this rotation

Areas for Improvement/Growth (Things you need to work on): Must be addressed in your learning plan for the next clinical experience great work this semester!!. pleasure having you as a student. all the best in the future
