(B) Associate Teacher Comments:

Strengths	Areas of Improvement
Brandon has done an excellent job in the Business Studies and MAPS classes. He has planned meaningful lessons with all types of learners in mind. He understands the difference between accommodations and modifications within different classes. He has accepted constructive criticism well and has always implemented suggestions. He showed initiative by starting his placement early, ending his placement after the assigned date and helping with the homework club after school hours. He prepares very detailed lesson plans using technology and is always willing to take risks with new ideas and is flexible when things do not go as planned. Brandon is well on his way to becoming a great teacher.	Brandon is encouraged to continue reading the Growing Success document to help with assessment and evaluation. He is encouraged to become more familiar with IEP's and how to plan for individual student needs. He is encouraged to continue reflecting on lesson plans and classes to see what he has done well and what he can improve on. He is encouraged to focus on classroom management strategies for his next placement which will likely be in person. He is encouraged to continue consulting with his faculty advisor and future associate teachers to help him find new and innovate ways to offer differentiated instruction. Keep up the great work Brandon!
