(B) Associate Teacher Comments:

Strengths	Areas of Improvement
Chris has developed a strong rapport with the students. He has consistently been professional in his interactions with staff and students and has taken the initiative to get involved in the school by coaching basketball. Lesson plans were thorough and took into account the curriculum expectations, as well as student needs and interests. His lessons incorporated various teaching strategies in engaging ways. Formative assessments were used effectively to adjust future lessons to meet students' needs and to prepare them for the summative assessments. Classroom management is a particular strength of Chris'. He effectively managed a variety of classroom situations in a firm and fair manner.	He is encouraged to continue to reflect on his teaching strategies and to explore new teaching strategies.
