To Whom It May Concern:

I am thrilled to recommend Devina Martinez to join and become a member of your team. As day camp Coordinator, I had the pleasure of working as Devina's coordinator when she was a Support Staff Counsellor. Responsible, punctual, and kind, Devina was one of the best staff on site. I absolutely endorse her broad skill set.

Throughout the summer, I was continuously impressed with Devina's capability to adapt to changing routines and her dedication to consistently providing support to anyone at camp who needed it. Devina is incredibly compassionate with a strong eye for inclusion. From just one summer of working with Devina, I watched her grow into her role as a Support Staff Counsellor. With her ability to take immense initiative and her gift to foster relationships, I knew I could always rely on her to be willing to ensure all campers were feeling comfortable and included while at camp.

While Devina thrived in promoting and implementing inclusion throughout our camp, she was also an amazing team player and an asset to the staff team. Optimistic, caring, empathetic, and incredibly easy to get along with, Devina truly was a joy to have on my staff team this summer. Devina left a remarkably positive impact on not only the campers who attended our day camp, but also the entire staff team.

I am highly confident in my recommendation and believe that Devina would be an incredible member of your team. I would be more than happy to speak with you should you want any further knowledge on my experience working with Devina.
